Editor's Note

foxtalesnews@gmail.com

Howdy Y'all! I am Mary Watson your new newsletter editor. I am honored to have this opportunity to be active in the ATFTC. It has taken me a bit to get everything together for my first attempt and I am open to all submissions and suggestions you would like to add. I don't want to miss your input, so I have set up an email for newsletter submissions:

foxtalesnews@gmail.com.

Many, many thanks and my gratitude to Chris Bowker for all her help in getting started. She handed me an excellent foundation to start with, I couldn't have done this without her assistance.

There are some new features in the form of links. When reading the .pdf version there are several things you can click on to redirect your interest.

- At the top of any page, clicking the ATFTC logo will take you to the website for the club.
- In the top right corner, any page, clicking on the issue date will take you to the table of contents.
- From the table of contents, click on what you want to read next, and it will jump right to the article.
- When you submit an advertisement or litter announcement, include your kennel website if it is set up and I can link a direct jump from your ad to your website for readers.
- If an information article is submitted with references, the references will have a link for you to read more on the topic if interested.

Now, about advertising. We want to see your proud moments with your Toy Fox Terrier. Show us your pride in your line. Facebook is a good place to start sure but its not the greatest for history. There are a plethora of rules for advertising puppies on Facebook and a basketful of people who live to make breeders lives miserable. The newsletter is, in my opinion, a better way to show breed lines, advertise studs, and get word out on puppies to a trusted audience. The price is reasonable, and funds help the club take care of other expenses. Advertising your litters is also a great way to get interest for your pups and gives other fanciers a way to refer people to you. Please do include your kennel website, email, or other reliable link in your ad for direct links. Remember to send your payment for advertisement and litter announcements to the treasurer either by PayPal or mail and the ad content to me at foxtalesnews@gmail.com. You can custom format the content or let me know if I can assist you with formatting.

I am looking forward to making this newsletter an informative reference you can enjoy.

Warmest wishes for the New Year Mary

Spotlight On Juniors

Hello, my name is Alessandra Wagner I am 15 years old!

I have been involved in Toy Fox Terriers for 13 years and have been showing them for 11 years! Most people recognize me as that one young girl that shows Toy Fox Terriers! I've been the #1 Toy Fox Terrier Junior Handler in the country since 2018 according to CC Stats, and I am the #10 Toy Junior this year! I am the only junior handler that actively shows a Toy Fox Terrier year-round in juniors! I've qualified for Orlando the past 4 years, as many of you know Toy Fox Terriers take a bit of patience but make great juniors' dogs! I have won 14 all-breed best juniors and 8 reserve all breed best juniors throughout the past 6 years! I also compete in the breed ring with my junior's dog (GRCHS TNT'S Mind Your Own Biscuits RATI CGC) he has been in the Top 20 all-breed for

Throughout the years I have finished 5 Toy Fox Terriers, and have put a grand, grand champion bronze, grand champion silver, NOHS bronze & silver on KC! He is currently 80 points away from his grand champion gold title and 295 points away from his NOHS gold! KC won select dog at our 2022 TFT National in Perry GA with me showing him! To say the least it would be amazing to see more Toy Fox Terrier juniors, especially because I only have 3 years left in juniors and I would be more than heartbroken to see no TFT juniors that show year-round!
